We have received Andrew resignation and would like to thank him for his contributions to the committee. We would like to welcome Peter MulHolland as the committee's appointment to Vice President until AGM in December.

2. By-law changes

Jeff proposes to additions to the bylaws:

"Any provision of food, by a third party, on the clubs leased grounds may only be done with the provider having the appropriate Food Handling qualifications, a letter/email from the local council's Environment Health Officer, approving the provision of food at each individual event and prior approval of the committee."

Seconded by Geoff.

All in favour.

Jeff proposes to addition to the bylaws:

"Any in-kind or monetary support, contributions or sponsorship must be approved by the committee."

Seconded by Alex.

All in favour.

3. Email to members

Jeff proposes to send email to members:

“Hi,

It has come to the committee’s attention that some members are misinformed with regard to the club’s responsibilities to regulatorily authorities. The committee has a responsibility to regulatorily bodies, including West Tamar council, whenever a third party such as a business makes a contribution including the provision of food on the club leased land.

Therefore, all Archery Australia qualified members that run events are doing so as individual members and there are no contributions from businesses.

In fact, the reverse relationship exists, as members choose to support a business through the purchase of goods and services and the club supports the business by allowing free advertising in the Indoors and newsletter.

Paringa’s members enjoy archery in many ways and the committee works hard to provide the facilities and assets needed for all members to enjoy archery as a pastime, recreation, or sport.

The committee does not approve businesses using club facilities or assets for the promotion of the business without committee approval.

The committee hopes this clears up any misunderstandings.

Please contact the Secretary or any other committee member if you require further information.

Regards Alex Johnston – secretary@paringaarchers.org.au”
