A great opportunity

We are looking at running courses for qualifications as Club Official and Level 1 Coach and need to get an idea of the people that may be interested in attending.

A Club Official is someone qualified to conduct club shoots or local tournaments under Archery Australia's guidelines. They ensure events run safely and by the rules, but they're not certified coaches — so they don't provide formal instruction.

The plan is to do the online course at www.archeryeducation.com.au at Paringa as a group but you can also do it yourself at any time.

A Level 1 Coach leads Come 'n' Try sessions and beginner programs at clubs. Teaches basic archery techniques, safety, and etiquette. Acts as the first point of contact for new archers — often shaping their long-term interest in the sport.

This will be a one-day course run at Paringa. You can attend any of these Coaching courses around Australia. Have a look at Coaching Information for Coordinators, Presenters and Coaches for more information.

If you are interested in doing either of these courses at Paringa or would like more information, please send an email to coaching@paringaarchers.org.au.

Cheers, Jeff Garner – Level 1 & 2 Presenter/Assessor and AA Level 2 Coach.

Paringa Club Clout

On Saturday 16th August we will be holding another full-size clout round. Entry is via Archer's Diary: <https://www.archersdiary.com/EventEnrol.aspx?id=62b83f02-9824-4e84-a440-03a7ffb8f30b>

The ground is located at Smithfield, 566 Powranna Rd, Cressy. You will need to bring some lunch and drinks – and warm clothing!

An interesting slice of Paringa history

I accidentally came across this the other day. It is a YouTube clip from the National Film and Sound Archive of Australia and is about Launceston in 1966. It is an interesting video all round, but at about the 15:32 mark there is a brief bit showing some archers from Paringa, presumably at the Royal Park location.

2nd Saturday Shoot

A mix of Barebow recurve and Longbow for this event, with most choosing to shoot the AA 20/720 round and 3 participating in the 30/720. Four archers shot all golds during this shoot. Denise Frost and John Dodos both shot all golds at 20m and Dean Emery and Peter Mulholland managed all golds at 30m. John took home the prize for best all gold though, not only did he shoot two of them but managed a 57 on one end. Good shooting!
