For 2026 there are no night-time indoor shoots arranged. Jeff Garner has been running these shoots for a few years now and is taking a well-earned rest from the events. If there is anyone interested in running an evening shoot, please let us know. This can be any day of the week and is not restricted to Wednesday.

Also, if anyone is willing to run a Wednesday evening Come and Try once per month, please let us know.

A big thanks to Jeff for the work he has done in the past with running these shoots.

Archery Australia Nationals 2026 for Tasmania

Some information just in at the end of November was that the 2026 Nationals, both Youth and Open, will be held in Tassie.

The Youth Nationals will take place between 9th to 13th April, just after Easter and will be held in Launceston! At this stage plans are that the field will be conducted at Paringa, and the target events will be at a location in Launceston, yet to be decided.

The Open Target Nationals will be held between 25th and 31st October and will most probably be at Hobart Archers.

Mini Clout

The final shoot of the year was the mini clout. It was pretty windy and challenging. Denise was the high scorer again this round, closely followed by Karen, both at 50m.

An Interesting Internet Source

Here is an interesting internet source for those that may be interested - Hindustan Archery Times.

Don't let the name put you off. It has an Indian focus, but contains a lot of great modern, and historical archery information and videos from around the world – including a large Australian content.

There is a Facebook page, and a YouTube Chanel.

Below are some photos from the FB page of probably one of the first events in Australia that was provided for TV broadcast. It was an indoor shoot conducted at Horsham in Victoria in 1985 and had several invited archers from the USA. Take a look at the equipment, especially the compound archers – these people were shooting perfect scores 40 years ago with what would be considered pretty primitive equipment by today's standards.

The Horsham indoor can also be watched on YouTube at:

Not sure about the others, but the person in the middle of this photo is Mike Coen, one of Australia's top recurve archers of the time. Also of note is that recurves of the time incorporated quite long stabilisers off the top limb.

Becky Pearson and Terry Ragsdale of the USA

Eric Hall USA

Of note with the compounds is that they usually only had one long rod out the front, with minimal weights compared to today. They also typically only had 30-60% let off, compared to 60-80% now.
